only reason alleged is the mental one that the persons d did not come provided with cessary powers to reform the itution. This avoids the awk-baving entire control thereof, with power to fix burial fees, etc. H. M. Minister might be an ex-officio trustee and Chairman of the Committee, but without independent power and on the clear understanding that his presence involved no responsibility on the part of H. M. Government. The electoral body to consist of British residents with the qualification of two years residence and payment of an annual subscrip-tion of \pounds 1 to the British Hospital. In a clear and able speech Mr.

Satow explained to the meeting the bearing and necessity of these condi-tions, which, he said, had been most thoroughly discussed by the Cemetery Committee, who had resolved to adopt them and had framed certain resolutions in that spirit, which it was now his duty to present to the meeting. These resolutions were accordingly presented, and with a few verbal modifications were accepted unanimously, only in one instance serious discussion being evoked. The resolutions thus passed are as follows. 1. That this meeting accepts the amendments to the memorial of July last, signed W. B. Chamberlain, Edward Cooper, Thos. D. Lawrie, J. S. Wright and others, contained in a letter from Sir. R. E. Welby, dated Treasury Chambers, 2nd. December 1890, and addressed to the Under, Secretary of State, Foreign Office. Proposed by Mr.J. Oldham. Seconded by Mr. McCrindle.

2. That Her Majesty's Minister for the time being be an ex-officio trustee, and Chairman of the Committee. Proposed by Mr. J. Oldham, seconded by Mr. McCrindle. 3. That the total number of trustees of the Cemetery and Cemetery Fund be three, of whom two be elec-tive from among all British residents, the third being H. M. Minister for the third being H. M. Minister for the time being. Proposed by Mr. Hore, seconded by Dr. Lawrie. 4. That the number of additional committee men be four. Proposed by Mr. H. Chamberlain, seconded by Dr. Fleury. 5. That the electoral body be composed of British Subjects who less than two years, and who have paid an annual subscription of not less than $\pounds 1$ to the British Hospital not later than the 31st March of the year for which the vote is to be exercisable, and that the annual meeting be held in July. Proposed by Mr. E. Cooper, seconded by Mr. H. Elliott.

This resolution at first aroused a lively opposition, it being asked what connection there was between the Cemetery and the Hospital, and why the latter institution, rich and nearly self-supporting, should be endowed with this enforced contribution. Messrs. Ashe and Carrick brought forward amendments tor the elimination of the objectionable condition. However neither the Committee nor any else present seemed able to sug-gest an alternative qualification, and as some such clause was necessary, as it was considered that the Treasury had probably written in ignorance of the position of the Hospital, and as it was further thought that any refusal of _____ the suggestion, although not made a mance sine qua non by the Treasury, might lead to further complications and delay, and as after all the condition was not so very onerous, the opposition was withdrawn and the Cemetery as well as of the fund, from whose misdeeds we are now suffering were not in office. - On Friday all the resident

-The dull state of business although a reason for economising, is hardly an excuse for business houses to leave off advertising. It is a bad policy to fall out of the sight and remembrance of one's customers and a connection thus lost is not easily picked up again. Apropos of this, we have now some very advantageous advertising spaces to let at a tariff reduced to meet the necessities of the times.

-The regattas announced for last Sunday at Pocitos, will take place this afternoon, weather permitting. There will also be a greasy pole to climb, swimming races, music, and other diversions.

-After many struggles the Criterion Restaurant has succumbed to the crisis and has had to close its doors. Too much credit, difficulty in collecting accounts, and bad business generally, are the causes. It is not the only restaurant we have known ruined of late through giving too much credit.

-The Panorama of the Battle of Plevna, painted by the celebrated French artist Phillipotteaux, on exhibition for some months past at Buenos Aires, was destroyed by fire on Friday night. Several persons and firemen were injured. It had been heavily insured, but the in-surance had recently lapsed and had not been renewed.

It is stated that the Government has accepted a new proposal of the Sanitary Works Company for the completion of the Works. Once more it is declared positively that the contract for the loan was to be signed on Friday. The govern-

The Herald thinks we may therefore ook forward to an immediate issue of a hundred millions or so. The Provincial Governors will want money for the Presidential election. It appears from papers just pre-sented to Parliament that the House of Lords costs the country close upon 71,000!. This includes the salaries and pensions of the Lords of Appeal (27,750!.), and is calculated after due allowance of a sum of 25,000l received in connection with judicial proceedings, private bills, and taxation of costs. This was proposed by Mr. Marshall, seconded by Mr. Oldham and carried by acclamation.

Administrative Scandal.

Yesterday's Epoca contains a denunciation of a grave administrative scandal, though it does not add upon whom the blame rests. It appears, ac cording to our contemporary,thathe contract for casting the Paraguayan War Medals, instead of being offered for public tender, as ordained by law, has been granted to a certain Sr Carbone for the sum of $41,546,50. Carbone for the sum of $41,546,00. Enquiries made of the two principal engravers here show that they would have taken the same contract, the one for $7920, and the other for $4678,32. Therefore the loss to the State in the one instance is $33,626,50, and in the other $36,868,18. In fact the medals might have been obtained for 11 or 12 per cent of the price agreed for. The cent of the price agreed for. The Epoca says that the contract was signed last week, a few days before the nomination of the Ministry, and it calls upon the new Minister of Finance to enquire into the case and

LONDON NOTES

London, February 7.

A labou: difficulty on a great scale is being repidly developed in South Wales. Cardiff Correspondent Wales telegraphs that through the action of the tippers and crane men in the Bute Docks not only have thre thousand workers been thrown out of employment, but the movement is of employment, but the movement is spreading, and already the mineral traffic of two Welsh railways has been affected. On the one hand, preparations are being made by the federated owners to introduce «foreign» labour, while on the other the executive of the Dockers' Union have officially approved of the Dowlais ironworks have given notice of a demand for an increase of wages, and have notified their inten-

A REMARKABLE CASE IN COURT.

New York, February 6.

The preliminary hearing in a highly interesting case was held before Judge Blauvert to-day. Although still in its infanoy, the phonograph has been adapted to many novel uses; but probably the purpose to which Mrs. Theodoro Emmond has just put it takes pre-cedence for briginality and audacity. Mr Emmond appeared as defendant Mr. Emmond appeared as defendant in an action brought by Mr. Margaret Dusen for conspiracy and defama-tion of character. The facts of the tion of character. The facts of the case are briefly as follows; --Mrs. Margaret Dusen keeps a boarding-house, and Mr. Theodore Emmond is one of her boarders, the price he paid for his lodging and keep being five dollars a week. It is not a princely amount, and anything like sumptuous fare cannot be expected for the money Mr. Emmond appears to have money. Mr. Emmond appears to have been grievously disatisfied with the fare, and he devised and carried out a striking method of at once finding out the nature of the provender plac-ed before him and his fellow boarded before him and his reliow board-ers, and avenging himself and them for Mrs. Dusen's shortcomings. In pursuit of his scheme, Emmond plac-ed phonograph in the kitchen and privately bribed the cook to set it working when her mistress was talking. This she did, and on Sunday last, after dinner, the instrument last, after dinner, the instrument having in the meantime been brought from the kitchen into the dining room, Mrs. Dusen was invited to join the boarders and witness an exhibi-Mr. Emmouds explained to be a newly-invented music-machine. It was soon evident, however, that it did not produce harmony. After deluding his landlady into the notion that the phonograph was an instru-ment for producing a sconcord of sweet sounds, suitable for a Sunday afternoon, he induced her i o preside thereat. She had, however, no sooner set the machine working than the assembled Loarders heard the follow-ing deliverance in Mrs. Dusen's own well known voice:—...Mary, you don't want to pay over eight cents a pound for meat, anyhow. Its good enough for them. You can get it in Mulberry-street for that. You are giving too big prices for steak. If they don't like it, left them eat more vegetables. Yesterday you boughtfresh pie. How often have I told you to save five cents by getting it stale and warming it up. Then this bill of 25 cents a pound for coffee is too much; coffee at 15 cents a pound will do in the future. I have got enough trouble to make both ends meet without feed-ing three men at 5 dollars a week on porterhouse steak! > When Mrs. Dusen heard this peculiar sort of sunsic,> she darted from the room and sought the advice of herlawyers, with the result that Mr. Theodore Emmonds was summoned to appear before Mr. Justice Blauvert to-day, to answer the charge of detamation and conspiracy preferred by his incensed landladly. After hearing some of the evidence, which created the greatest merriment in court, some of the evidence, which created the greatest merriment in court, Judge Blauvert adjourned the further hearing of the case until next Thursday.

of movement this week, and attributes the change to the favourable feeling inspired by the new Ministers. -1200 arbs. wool were sold yes-terday at $ 3.15 to 3.30 according to class. --Itis stated that Sr. Garcia Santos in representation of the National Bank, has foreclosed on the San Fe-lipe Theatre and adjoining buildings, mortgaged by the National Com-pany. The properties of this Com-pany are dissappearing one by one, being seized for debts or unsatisfied mortgages, and the shareholders are getting anxious to know what effects are left to represent their capital. It is a very long time since any accounts or balance sheet have been presented. --Yesterday being still a holiday in B. Aires, no business telegram arrived thence.

Saturno for Salto with pass SHIPPING NOTES

SHIPPING NOTES -During the last voyage of the Oriental cutter «Nacional» to Maldo-nado, one of the sailors known as Nata, who had shown signs of mental disorder, suddenly cut his throat with a large knife and jumped overboard. He was taken out of the water dead, and buried at Maldonado. -A terrible affair has occurred in Brazilian waters, off Pernambuco. The English ship «Lissabon» ran into another vessel of the same class, name as yet unknown, and sank her.

Scott's Emulsion

The praises awarded by the Medi-cal Faculty to Scott's Emulsions are the best reward of the inventor.

(Beware of the so-called "Scott's Formula") Almeria, May 29, 1887.

In my large practice I have used various medicines for the treatment of complaints of a lymphatic or scrofulous character, especially weak persons predisposed to pul-monary affections, but none have given so good a result as Scott's Emulsion of cod liever oil. I tried this especially with two scrofulous patients suffering from great weak-ness, and they are now e joying perfect health. Dr. José Lores

This professor has had great success in curing persons suffering from loss of appetite, etc., by means of his entirely new system of gym-netic.

No More Bald Heads using the tonic VIGOR DEL CABELLO pre-pared by Francisco François.

pared by Francisco François. This is not a quack preparation intend-ed to deceive the public by selling them a useless atticle, but a genuine tonic, scien-uffically tested by the most eminent analysis of this and other countries, which gives strength to the hais and the scalp, and causes a complete disappearance of scurf, and prevents the hair tailing off. Every one should use this tonic, the bald to recover the hair, those who have little hair in order to increase and "trengthen it. Every bottle is accompanied by a pamphiet with fall directions, and many testimonials from known persons. To ladies this tonic will be found of inestimable value for the preservation of their lock.. On sale in all the principal Chemists and Hairdressers. To avoid initiations, the legitimate bittles have two white labels indicating the place of sale.

First-lis taste is pleasant to the palate, and the mode of manufacture digests it in part so as to avoid weakening the digestive organs. Thus the most delicate stomach of a child or an adult can digest it and asimmlate it to the system when they repel absolutely the simple cod liver oil on account of its repulsive taste, and because its abundance of fat will not allow it to be digested and absorbed by the system of strong and robust men. Second. —The hypophosphates combined with cod liver oil in emulsion increase very much its peculiar qualities, forming together a medicine of admirable power, in order to fight with every illness which shows mani-festations of phthysis, Scrotula or Emaciation of every description, it is also the best medicine for colds and affections of the throat. Third.—Its fortifying qualities are marvellons and three times stronger than those of cod liver oil.

played with a depth of feeling which, combined with greater technical finish, would perhaps have made him famous, but to-night the performance was ill-timed; no one listened to it except Lockhart Leith. He was playing his own arrangement of Schu-mann's divinest song; «Hör ich das Liedchen Klingen das einst die Liedchen Klingen das einst die Liedste sang.» Poor Meyer! He suffered the artist's penalty—that frail body of his was ill-mated with so great a soul. For him the outer life was wardly a mereten life was merely a monotonous neces-sity; he really lived only in these moments of exaltation when his spirit shock off its fetters and soared aloft into the free realm of music As he poured forth his passionate love song, Lockhart Leith leaned eagerly towards him, his hands tightly clutching the arms of his chair. The low walling the arms of this chair. The low walling tones of the violin seemed to find strange echoes in his heart. He sat there breathless, drinking in that wonderful melody, and gazing with straining eyes into some newfound region of more than earthly beauty. As the last notes died away he start-ted up with a low sob, the palms of his head areas of the palms of his hands pressed tightly against his temples. The buzz of conversation ceased instantly, and every eye was turned towards hin. He reeled a-gainst the piano. Hasluck rushed to his aid. «Get the men away, Dick» he gasped-«I am ill.»

Then he tell back into his friend's arms. He had fainted. CHAPTER III.

Lockhart's recovery was almost as Lockhart's recovery was almost as rapid as had been the approach of his malady, and, indeed, the local doctor appeared somewhat puzzled at the mwonted efficacy of his treatment, more especially as the symptoms ex-hibited by his patient were entirely unfamiliar to him. To guard against a possible recurrence of the at-tack he advise a change of air, and suggested a little fishing-village on the Norfolk coast. To Wynstone ac-cordingly Lockhart went, and thither
